PREFACE

In presenting the One Hundred and Eleventh Edition of the City of Hamilton Directory, we thank our advertisers, subscribers and the community in general for the generous support they have given us.

Once again, postal codes have been included in the street directory (pink section). They are prominently located after each street intersection description and shown in italics.

The Directory includes the names of many persons who are employed in the City but live outside it.

The Population of the Region (1983) 414,175; Hamilton (1982) 410,582.

On January 1, 1974, the City of Hamilton became part of the Regional Municipality of Hamilton-Wentworth, while at the same time retaining its identity as a city in a two-tier system of regional government.

The other members of the Hamilton-Wentworth Region are the Towns of Ancaster, Dundas, Stoney Creek and Glanbrook, and the Township of Flamborough. Residents of these municipalities, together with the residents of the City of Burlington (which is part of the Regional Municipality of Halton), are listed in a separate publication, the Burlington and Hamilton Suburban Directory.

POSTAL CODE —

WHAT IS IT?

The postal CODE, composed of six characters, is a permanent part of your postal address. In urban areas, it contains enough information to determine the destination of a letter right down to one side of a city street between intersections, and sometimes even further.

The CODE is composed of both letters and numbers, in the form of ANA NAN, where "A" represents a letter of the alphabet, and "N" a number. There is a space separating the first three characters, the Area Code, from the last three.

In urban areas, the Area Code describes an area roughly the size of 25 letter carrier routes. The last three characters denote a very small and easily-defined section within the area described by the Area Code. These characters can specify one side of a city block, an apartment building, an office building or a large firm or organization which does considerable business with the Post Office. They can also denote a service from a post office or postal station — rural route, general delivery.

In rural areas, the postal CODE indicates a specific post office.

The postal CODE will facilitate the sorting of mail, especially as mechanized sorting machines have become necessary to cope with growing mail volumes.

FIRST AID CHART

First Aid is the immediate and temporary care given to the victim of an accident or sudden illness. Its purpose is to preserve life, assist recovery and prevent aggravation of the condition, until the services of a doctor can be obtained.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

Casualties who have stopped breathing from drowning, electric shock, poisons, etc., should be given mouth to mouth resuscitation. Make sure the mouth and throat are free of obstruction. Lift the neck, tilt the head and blow into the victim's mouth about every five seconds. If there are facial or head injuries, or an injury to the neck region of the spine, other forms of Artificial Respiration must be used.

BLEEDING

To control bleeding, even from a cut artery, apply direct pressure on the wound using a clean pad or your hand. Raise the arm or leg or head above heart level.

FRACTURES

All fractures must receive medical attention. Before moving a casualty you must splint the break. Use an umbrella, a magazine, a stick or a convenient substitute to immobilize the broken bone. In the case of a leg, the uninjured leg can be the splint. Use plenty of bandages to secure the splint above and below the break.

BURNS

Immerse the injured area in cold water to relieve pain. Do not break blisters. Cover with a clean dressing. Medical attention is imperative for severe burns or minor burns covering a large area.

UNCONSCIOUSNESS

Place casualty in the recovery position. Loosen tight clothing. Give nothing by mouth. Never leave an unconscious person alone. Send for medical help.

POISONS

Call your Poison Control Centre or doctor and get casualty to hospital immediately.

Identify the poison if possible and take the container with you. DO NOT induce vomiting if burns and stains about the lips indicate a caustic or corrosive substance has been taken.

FROSTBITE

Best treatment for frostbite is to gradually warm the affected area by body heat. Apply hands to face and ears; place hands inside jacket under armpits. DO NOT RUB AND DO NOT APPLY DIRECT HEAT.

HEART ATTACKS

Send for medical aid at once. Do not move the casualty unless it is absolutely necessary. Support him in a sitting position and loosen tight clothing. If breathing stops commence mouth to mouth resuscitation immediately.

Hamilton - A Brief History

DUNDURN CASTLE, built in 1832 by Sir Alan MacNab who was Prime Minister of Upper Canada from 1854 to 1856. Named after his home in Scotland it was never a castle in the military sense, but nearby are located the earthworks on Burlington Heights from which British troops left to repel the invading American forces at Stoney Creek in 1813. Now completely restored, the castle is open daily to visitors.

ONE DAY IN SEPTEMBER 1669, LaSalle, the French explorer, and a small band of adventurers entered Macassa Bay (now Hamilton Harbor) from Lake Ontario, crossed in their canoes and landed on its northern shores where they were met by a friendly band of Indians. This landing-place of LaSalle is now a natural park, which will ever bear his name. During their short stay these intrepid explorers charted the beautiful natural harbor and the surrounding countryside, and recorded the first survey of the site of Hamilton, the present industrial centre of Canada.

History tells us that LaSalle was the first white man to set foot on or near the site of the now important City of Hamilton, and though it was more than a century later before the first real settlers came and laid the foundations of the city that was to be, and now is, the name of LaSalle will always occupy a place in the city's archives.

ARRIVAL OF UNITED EMPIRE LOYALISTS

Though LaSalle had come, and seen and gone, the Indians continued in practically undisputed possession of the entire district until the United States proclaimed their independence, when there was a great influx into Canada of loyalists who wished to preserve their allegiance to their Mother Country and desired to continue to live on British soil.

The first of these settlers to arrive and locate on a 300 acre farm which is now occupied by one of Hamilton's busiest manufacturing and business districts was Robert Land, who, in 1778, erected Hamilton's first home — a log cabin that stood at the corner of Barton and Leeming Streets. At about the same time Richard Beasley opened a trading post on the site now occupied as Dundurn Park and took up some 1,000 acres of land in the present city. Others soon followed and when the first survey of the district was made in 1791 there were thirty-one families settled in the neighborhood.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME

The war of 1812 between Great Britain and the United States was responsible for the City being given the name of "Hamilton." To be beyond the range of possible conflict, George Hamilton, son of Honorable Robert Hamilton, moved westward from Niagara-on-the-Lake, and purchased a tract of property which includes the heart of Hamilton's present commercial, financial and retail district, and in the year 1813 this tract was surveyed as a town site and named "Hamilton."

Incidentally, Hamilton in the same year became a point of no small military importance, for when General Vincent, commanding the British forces retired from the Niagara frontier he took up his stand on Burlington Heights and operating from that base repelled the invading forces at the Battle of Stoney Creek in June, 1813, thus definitely determining the future of the Dominion of Canada as an important part of the British Empire. The Stoney Creek battlefield, east of the City, is still preserved as a public park, and the site where the British forces made their successful stand is marked by a suitable monument, that can be seen for miles around.

Strategically located, even in those early days, Hamilton soon gained prominence as an important trading centre. By 1840 the population had reached a total of 6,832 and during the course of that same year another bright page was added to early Canadian history, for it was then that Hamilton became a city.

In terms of industrial production Hamilton ranks third among the cities of Canada. The city's population Region (1979) 407,758.

McMaster University

McMaster University, founded in Toronto in 1887 through the merger of the Toronto Baptist College and Woodstock College, has grown steadily through the years to become one of the country's leading institutions of post-secondary education and research. On its present Hamilton campus since 1930, and non-sectarian since 1957, McMaster now has grown to more than 10,000 full-time undergraduate and graduate students.

Nuclear studies have been emphasized at McMaster since the early 1950's. Sophisticated equipment, including a "pool-type" reactor and two particle accelerators, provide the means for faculty and students to carry on programs of research in the nuclear field, including the use of radioactive tracers in biological studies.

The McMaster Health Sciences Centre, opened in 1972, has become known around the world for its exciting innovations both in the design of the building and the methods of teaching employed there. The building, four stories high, each story of seven acres in area, houses both the Faculty of Health Sciences and the McMaster University Medical Centre, the latter encompassing facilities for patient care. The Medical School, providing an unusual study approach that spans three calendar years, the School of Nursing, facilities for medical research and for training of health-related professions are located there. The facilities of the Medical Centre, which are integrated within the overall Hamilton District health system, allow students opportunities to observe patients in clinical situations. Both the building and the outstanding staff are readily adaptable to new methods of medical care, teaching and research.

St. John Ambulance

The need never changes.

FIRST AID CHART

First Aid is the immediate and temporary care given to the victim of an accident or sudden illness. Its purpose is to preserve life, assist recovery and prevent aggravation of the condition, until the services of a doctor can be obtained.

ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

Casualties who have stopped breathing from drowning, electric shock, poisons, etc., should be given mouth to mouth resuscitation. Make sure the mouth and throat are free of obstruction. Lift the neck, tilt the head and blow into the victim's mouth about every five seconds. If there are facial or head injuries, or an injury to the neck region of the spine, other forms of Artificial Respiration must be used.

BLEEDING

To control bleeding, even from a cut artery, apply direct pressure on the wound using a clean pad or your hand. Raise the arm or leg or head above heart level.

FRACTURES

All fractures must receive medical attention. Before moving a casualty you must splint the break. Use an umbrella, a magazine, a stick or a convenient substitute to immobilize the broken bone. In the case of a leg, the uninjured leg can be the splint. Use plenty of bandages to secure the splint above and below the break.

BURNS

Immerse the injured area in cold water to relieve pain. Do not break blisters. Cover with a clean dressing. Medical attention is imperative for severe burns or minor burns covering a large area.

UNCONSCIOUSNESS

Place casualty in the recovery position. Loosen tight clothing. Give nothing by mouth. Never leave an unconscious person alone. Send for medical help.

POISONS

Call your Poison Control Centre or doctor and get casualty to hospital immediately.

Identify the poison if possible and take the container with you. DO NOT induce vomiting if burns and stains about the lips indicate a caustic or corrosive substance has been taken.

FROSTBITE

Best treatment for frostbite is to gradually warm the affected area by body heat. Apply hands to face and ears; place hands inside jacket under armpits. DO NOT RUB AND DO NOT APPLY DIRECT HEAT.

HEART ATTACKS

Send for medical aid at once. Do not move the casualty unless it is absolutely necessary. Support him in a sitting position and loosen tight clothing. If breathing stops commence mouth to mouth resuscitation immediately.

“BUYER BEWARE”

Special Notice

The Vernon Company has been publishing city directories for Ontario communities for more than ninety years, beginning with the Guelph directory in 1894. We have worked diligently to establish a reputation in the business community for reliability and honesty in our dealings. Our policy is not to ask for payment in advance, except in the case of new subscribers or telephone orders.

From time to time other firms appear on the scene selling listings, subscriptions and advertising space in directories of various kinds. Some of these are legitimate, but others, often securing advance payments, publish only a token directory or none at all. In addition, solicitation for directory listings, purposely designed to resemble invoices, are sometimes mailed to business firms and are passed for payment as the result of insufficient checking.

We urge our subscribers to take the following steps to protect themselves from fraudulent directory schemes:

1. Before signing a contract for directory service, listings, or advertising space, check the identity and reputation of the publisher; if in doubt, contact your local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau.
2. Be especially wary of contracts which require payment with the order.
3. Be sure to read the small print before approving an “invoice” which is really only a direct mail solicitation for directory which may never be published.

HAMILTON, ONTARIO

There are ACRES of opportunity in Hamilton-Wentworth

Industrial Sites

We have fully-serviced land and existing buildings immediately available throughout the area. We have excellent rail and high-way systems, Canada's busiest Great Lakes port and soon, an expanded regional airport.

Commercial Opportunities

Our surrounding population has one of the highest average disposable incomes in Canada. Hamilton's city core has recently undergone a massive and exciting revitalization program.

Tourist Areas

We're in the midst of a tourist mecca. Places such as Dundurn Castle and the Wentworth Pioneer Village show our unique history. For recreation, go boating or swimming in the summer, skiing or tobogganing in winter. And both Toronto and Niagara Falls are just a short drive away.

Residential Areas

We have everything from high-rises in the bustling heart of the city to residential estates in our surrounding towns and villages.

Community Facilities

Area residents enjoy our superb new art gallery, McMaster University and Mohawk College. Hamilton Place presents the best in live entertainment, and soon construction will begin on our convention centre. Out-of-doors, the Royal Botanical Gardens and other natural recreation facilities are found throughout the region.

Interruptions . . .

When you are exasperated by interruptions, try to remember that their very frequency may indicate the valuableness of your life. Only the people who are full of help and strength are burdened by other people's needs. The interruptions which you tolerate are the credentials of your indispensability. The greatest condemnation that anybody could incur — and it is a danger to guard against — is to be so independent, so unhelpful, that nobody ever interrupts you, and you are left comfortably alone.

ALPHABETICAL DIRECTORY HAMILTON 1984

EXPLANATION

1. The Christian name appearing alone in brackets is the name of spouse.
2. In some cases the designation, widow, has been omitted by request.
3. Names in bold print are those of firms which subscribe to or advertise in this City Directory. Names in capital letters are those of proprietors, partners or executives of these firms.
4. Business firms which are individual proprietorships or partnerships are indicated by listing the names of the owner or partners in brackets: Plaza Groceries (John B. Scott, Wm. Noble). Conversely, a firm name in brackets after an individual's name indicates that he is an owner or partner in the firm.
5. The householder or head of the house (owner or tenant) is indicated by h preceding the street address. Other members of the family, roomers and boarders do not have this designation. To determine whether the householder is owner or tenant, refer to the pink section, where home ownership is indicated by an asterisk (*).
6. The information in this directory has been gathered from original sources and the Publishers have made every effort to ensure completeness and accuracy. They cannot guarantee the complete absence of errors and assume no responsibility therefor. You are requested to draw any inaccuracies to the attention of the Publishers so that corrections may be made in the next edition.
